Program

TEACHERS, LEARNING LEADERS AND ADMINISTRATORS ARE ENCOURAGED TO ATTEND.

A collaborative workshop that discusses the principles of outcomes based assessment with a focus on how curriculum leaders and administrators can support teachers in making shifts in their professional practice. Topics explored would include leading through example, exploring opportunities for professional growth, and assessment that informs student awareness. This workshop would be appropriate for teachers, learning leaders, and administrators.

This learning opportunity is being offered through a grant from Alberta Education.

Presenters

Marni Suey

has been a teacher with Chinook Learning Services, a part of the Calgary Board of Education, for ten years and the English Language Arts Learning Leader for the past four. The diverse nature of both colleagues (21 ELA teachers) and students has provided the ELA team with a platform to create specific courses to meet the needs of sophisticated and changing learners. Marni was a presenter at Moving Forward with High School Redesign in 2015 and has been a participant at the Galileo Educational Network session on Leading Teacher Learning through the Calgary Board since 2013.
