Program

TARGET AUDIENCE: ALL JUNIOR HIGH AND MIDDLE SCHOOL EDUCATORS AND SUPPORT STAFF ARE ENCOURAGED TO ATTEND

This session will provide support for all levels of school authorities that results in an increased awareness and understanding of First Nations, Métis and Inuit histories, perspectives, and ways of knowing. Educators and support staff will participate in professional learning to effectively select culturally appropriate resources and review instructional strategies to support all students in First Nations, Métis and Inuit education, as it relates to their educational context.

This learning opportunity is being offered through a grant from Alberta Education

Presenters

is a 32-year educator. She is Cree Métis from Saskatchewan and member of the One Arrow First Nation, Treaty Six territory. Donna began her teaching career as a classroom teacher with Tsuut'ina Nation and continued to support First Nations learners in subsequent positions with Siksika and Stoney Nakoda Nations, and is currently an Indigenous Designer of Learning with the Calgary Regional Consortium. Donna brings passion and a deep knowledge of First Nations, Métis, and Inuit histories, the impact of residential schools, and the embedding of Indigenous ways of knowing into Alberta curriculum and organizational culture. She is also a proud kokum!
