Learning Opportunity

Calling all music educators! The first of our monthly sessions will focus on current issues in music education, how to support each other with professional learning and resource sharing and highlighting some of our "musical moments" from the new school year.

If interested in sharing, please send a photo or video of your "musical moment" to grace.gadon@aplc.ca by Friday, October 11th. Please ensure that no student faces or names are visible in your photo or video or you have the appropriate FOIP permissions to share.

Presenters

Grace Gadon

Grace has taught elementary music for K-8 students and has worked with such organizations as the Banff Centre for Arts and Creativity and the Gord Downie and Chanie Wenjack Fund.

She received her Bachelor of Music from Queen's University and has completed two levels of Orff Teacher Education at the Royal Conservatory of Music in Toronto as well as two levels of Vocal Music Additional Qualification courses through OISE. She is a member of the Calgary Orff Chapter.

Her desire to work with the APLC stems from her experience as a music education mentor with Canadian Rockies Public Schools and a goal to create a more cohesive, approachable and rich professional learning community for music educators in the province.

Registration Notes

This series will be recorded and available for 30 days.

All session times are mountain time.
