Learning Opportunity

Target audience: K-12 teachers, instructional leaders and pre-service teachers are encouraged to attend.

Developed by teachers and leaders from Rocky View Schools, these writing assessment tools and student writing samples have been designed to support the development of writing skills with the intent to inform instructional decisions.

Presenters

Carolane Contant

With 12 years of teaching experience, Carolane has worked as a teacher in grades 1, 2, and 3 in Francophone and French Immersion programs. For the past three years, she has served as a Learning Specialist, supporting teachers in both French and English from Kindergarten through Grade 12. A dedicated advocate for literacy, Carolane played a key role in developing a comprehensive writing assessment tool for French language learners, contributing significantly to the advancement of writing pedagogy.

Jane Roberts

Jane Roberts is a Learning Specialist with Rocky View Schools. With 15 years of experience in public and independent schools as an educator, principal, instructional coach and ELL program coordinator, Jane works elbow-to-elbow with middle and high school teachers and administrators fostering a culture of literacy. Specific areas of interest and experience include engaging and empowering adolescent learners, igniting passionate readers and independent writers with mentor texts, balanced assessment practices, disciplinary literacy, and inclusive design.

Alida South

Alida South is an accomplished educator with over 20 years of experience in public education. Her extensive background spans K-8 settings, where she has served as a classroom teacher, literacy coach, and learning support teacher. Currently, she is a Learning Specialist with Rocky View Schools, where she collaborates closely with teachers across the division. Alida is dedicated to enhancing literacy and numeracy instruction, providing valuable support and resources to empower educators in their classrooms.
