Program

TARGET AUDIENCE: ALL SCHOOL ADMINISTRATORS, TEACHERS AND SUPPORT STAFF ARE ENCOURAGED TO ATTEND

This session will provide support for all levels of school authorities that results in an increased awareness and understanding of First Nations, Métis, and Inuit histories, perspectives, and ways of knowing. Educators and support staff will be able to build on foundational knowledge and understand significant contextual realities which have an impact on student learning. Best practices within your own classrooms will be explored to further support all learners.

This learning opportunity is being offered through curriculum implementation funding from Alberta Education.

Presenters

Donna Ross

is a 32-year educator. She is Cree Métis from Saskatchewan and member of the One Arrow First Nation, Treaty Six territory. Donna began her teaching career as a classroom teacher with Tsuut'ina Nation and continued to support First Nations learners in subsequent positions with Siksika and Stoney Nakoda Nations, and is currently an Indigenous Designer of Learning with the Calgary Regional Consortium. Donna brings passion and a deep knowledge of First Nations, Métis, and Inuit histories, the impact of residential schools, and the embedding of Indigenous ways of knowing into Alberta curriculum and organizational culture. She is also a proud kokum!
