Program

TARGET AUDIENCE: K-12 TEACHERS ARE ENCOURAGED TO ATTEND

Have you ever tried to spell a word you've written over a hundred times and cannot seem to picture it in your mind? Join us for a session designated to the power of symbol imagery and its connection to spelling. Learn the steps to developing your students' use of imagery to assist learning. To complement this method, we will explore a research based technique to improve student's awareness of how to spell words correctly and flex/self correct spelling within their written work.

This learning opportunity is being offered through curriculum implementation funding from Alberta Education.
