Program

Target Audience: K-12 Teachers and Leaders

This 3-part interactive series offers just the right mix of learning, collaborative discussion and taking steps to activate the tools and strategies your students need now. Discover new ways to create a feedback-rich culture in your class or school, uncover evidence of learning, document and monitor progress and verify student achievement.

Time spent here is time well spent!

Presenters

Cheryl Babin

M.Ed., is a Designer of Professional Learning with the Calgary Regional Consortium. With experience in public, international and independent schools, Cheryl has held many roles including classroom and lead teacher, experiential learning coordinator, instructional coach, IB workshop leader and university sessional instructor. Cheryl currently designs and facilitates professional learning opportunities for teachers and leaders in the region. Specific areas of interest and experience include making learning meaningful through critical thinking, conceptual understanding, student engaged assessment, and the development of international-mindedness and global perspectives.

Hannah Fisher

has been an elementary and middle school teacher in Calgary public schools for 14 years and currently works as a specialist in curriculum assessment for the Calgary Board of Education. Her pedagogical interests include equitable grading practices, worthwhile task design and classrooms for social justice.

Cori Braun

is a Strategist for School Improvement with the Calgary Board of Education. With twenty-two years of teaching experience in Kindergarten to Grade six and twelve years of Learning Leader experience in the area of Educational Technology, Cori designs and facilitates professional learning opportunities for teachers and school leaders. Cori graduated from the University of Calgary with her B.Ed as an Elementary Generalist with an ELA major, as well as her Masters in Educational Technology. Cori is passionate about creating and designing opportunities for teachers to learn and grow. With a thorough understanding of the K-6 Alberta Curriculum, Cori has an expertise in supporting teachers in rich and rigorous task design that engages all learners.

Brianne O'Sullivan

is currently a Specialist with The Calgary Board of Education in core curriculum and assessment. She has experience as an elementary generalist and middle school math/science teacher, guidance teacher and numeracy/literacy strategist. She is particularly passionate about building relational trust with students and colleagues, designing worthwhile and engaging learning tasks, and using equitable assessment practices that improve learning.
